

M-202 - M-211
1/4" Drive Wobble Extensions

PRODUCT DETAILS

- Chrome plating provides increased protection from rust and corrosion
- Provides 16° of additional accessibility

PRODUCT ATTRIBUTES

| Product  |  |  |  |
|----------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| JHWM-202 | 1/4 in                                                                              | 2 in                                                                                  | 0.06 lb                                                                               |
| JHWM-203 | 1/4 in                                                                              | 3 in                                                                                  | 0.08 lb                                                                               |
| JHWM-206 | 1/4 in                                                                              | 6 in                                                                                  | 0.15 lb                                                                               |
| JHWM-211 | 1/4 in                                                                              | 11 in                                                                                 | 0.27 lb                                                                               |